The theory is rooted in the villain's name. Asterix and his best friend Obelix take part in the first Trans-Italic chariot race, a ruse cooked up by Senator Lactus Bifidus to cover up his total lack of road maintenance and utter greed. There is one catch, however: Julius Caesar tells Senator Lactus Bifidus a Roman must win.

YMMV / Asterix and the Chariot Race. YMMV /. Asterix and the Chariot Race. "Funny Aneurysm" Moment: The name of Coronavirus became a bit less funny in early 2020 when Covid-19 began making the headlines as a possible threat of (and eventual) pandemic. As a bonus, the book centers around a race in Italy, the first country outside of Asia to have an outbreak of the virus and one of the countries in Europe hit hardest by it.
