Call To Discipleship By Bonhoeffer Study Guide

Here we come once more to the essence of Bonhoeffer's teaching from The Cost of Discipleship to the last of the prison letters: Christianity is not first of all a system of doctrine; it is about being "in Christ" the crucified and risen one and it, therefore, means that the disciple must die with Him in order that he may also be raised with Him. This theology of the cross relates to the Christian's task with respect to the world, the task of proclaiming the message of salvation.

Cost of Discipleship. In 1936, Bonhoeffer published Nachfolge. It would be later published in English as The Cost of Discipleship. In it he declares, "When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die." In Christ, we are dead. The old self and the old way is dead. And, in Christ, we are alive.

The Cost of His Discipleship | Desiring God

The Cost of Discipleship is a book by the German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, considered a classic of Christian thought. The original German title is simply Nachfolge. It is centered on an exposition of the Sermon on the Mount, in which Bonhoeffer spells out what he believes it means to follow Christ. It was first published in 1937, when the rise of the Nazi regime was underway in Germany and it was against this background that Bonhoeffer's theology of costly discipleship developed, which ult
